Conducting a Voter Registration Drive in Washington

Voter Registration Deadline
Applications delivered by mail or in person must be received no later than 8 days before Election Day. Registration applications collected as part of a voter registration drive must be returned no later than 5 days after receiving them, or before this voter registration deadline, whichever is first.

Getting Started

Training Requirement: Washington does not require training for registration drives, but the Office of the Secretary of State provides training and encourages all organizations, employees or volunteers to participate. See the Secretary of State’s guide to voter registration drives.

Notification and Registration Requirements: Washington does not have notification requirements for registration drives.

Compensation Restrictions: Do not pay or reward registration drive participants based on how many registrations they collect. It is a felony in Washington to pay or accept payment for assisting in registering voters where payment is based on a fixed amount of money per voter registration.

Handling Applications

Incomplete Applications: Do not fill in any missing information on a registration form unless you have permission from the applicant.

Photocopying Completed Applications: There is no law or rule prohibiting photocopying or retaining information from completed registration applications. As a best practice, a voter’s full or partial Social Security number and/or driver’s license number should not be retained.

Submitting Completed Applications: Registration applications collected as part of a voter registration drive must be returned no later than 5 days after receiving them, or before the voter registration deadline, whichever is first. Fair Elections Center recommends that drives submit applications so that they are received by county election offices by this timeframe.

Voter registration applications should be delivered/mailed to the county election office of the county where the voter resides.

If you have forms from multiple counties you should mail them to the Secretary of State and they will forward them. Forms can be mailed/delivered to the Secretary of State’s Office, Election Division: 520 Union Ave. SE; PO Box 40229; Olympia, WA 98504-0229.
